NOT MUSTERED OUT.

There is a Chance That Company B May Remain.

St. Albans, Feb. 19.—Company B, Vermont National Guard, will not be mustered out until next Saturday if at all. Mayor Wheeler Saturday received a telegram from Adjutant General Gilmore stating that that part of the order providing for the disbandment of the company is suspended for a week. The postponement is to give the citizens an opportunity to arrange their side of the case for a hearing before a military board or court, which will be held soon. The financial troubles of the company, back to which much of the trouble dates, will be adjusted by tomorrow and that being out of the way, the other matters for adjustment will be quickly disposed of. St. Albans hopes and expects to keep Company B, here and will leave nothing undone to accomplish that end.

Church Makes Up Shortage.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 19.—The members of the Second Christian church on Sunday contributed $1,900 to cover the shortage of $1,500 in the accounts of Moken Dixon, the young woman custodian of the organ fund. Miss Dixon, who was indicted by the grand jury on Saturday for embezzlement, forgery and larceny, took $1,500 which had been raised for the purchase of the new church organ.

Pruning Apple Trees.

Spring Cutting is Desirable For Tender Varieties.

In a general way it may be said that the best time for pruning is in the spring, just before growth starts.
Wounds made at that time will not dry out as much as when made in the fall or winter, and when the ends of the branches are to be cut back there is often danger that they will be killed back still more by the winter, whereas there is no danger of this when the trees are pruned in March or April, as soon as severe freezing weather is over. Spring pruning is especially desirable for tender varieties, as it not only lessens the tendency to winter killing, but at that time it will be possible to tell how much the trees or plants have been killed back and to cut below the injured portion.

The Time For Trimming.

The rule, however, is not an inflexi-ble one, and in sections where there is little trouble from winter killing the pruning may be done at any time after the leaves drop in the fall and before growth starts in the spring.

It used to be said that fall and winter pruning induced leaf growth, while summer pruning promoted fruitfulness.
It is not strange that if we remove a portion of the branches during the winter, the full vigor of the tree being turned into those that remain, a stronger growth should be secured than with the trees unpruned. We can then say that much of the work can be done with hand shears. Pruning saws are needed for large branches, and for some purposes some of the level shears may be used.

To Secure Best Results.

To secure the best results it is important that the cuts should be made at the right point. If cut too long a bad stub will be formed, while if cut too close beneath the bud it will dry out. The proper way is to have the cut start on the side opposite the bud, cut even with its tip and, with a saw, cut at about 30 degrees from a cut at right angles, come out just above the bud.

Cutting Off Large Branches.

Even greater care should be taken in cutting off large branches from the trunk or other branches. Sometimes the cut is made at right angles to the branch that is cut. This leaves a bad stub, which will be unsightly and the end of which will heal over very slowly if at all. As a rule, the interior of the stub decays, and a cavity is formed in the tree. On the other hand, the cut is often made parallel with the main trunk or branch. This is sometimes all right, but generally there is a large shoulder at the base of the branch and a wound of considerable size is produced. By cutting at an angle of fifteen or twenty degrees from the last named cut the wound would often be reduced in size fully one-half, and it would not project so far but that the healing would be even more rapid than with a parallel cut.—Practical Gardening.

A Sweet Potato Grower's Experience.

I have grown about 2,000 bushels of sweet potatoes for several years, and I have never had soil rot or brown rot or whatever you may call it very badly on the potatoes. Sometimes it is much worse where we use stable manure, but one of the great secrets in controlling it is not to plant seed that is affected by it. A neighbor of mine who is a heavy grower has retained his own seed for years. He grows the red variety, and nearly all of them became black. It was in his seed, and it was transmitted from one generation to another. The best way for a man to get clear of it is to get seed which is perfectly clean and then plant it on soil where he has not planted sweet potatoes for a few years.—

Directors of the New Britain Savings Bank Are Confering With the Police and Pinkertons, But No Trace Found.

New York, Feb. 19.—According to the police and the Pinkertons, the whereabouts of William F. Walker, the missing treasurer of the New Britain, Ct., Savings bank, is still a mystery.

The story circulated yesterday that the police and the Pinkerton agency knew the names of the members of a notorious gang of wiretappers who had successfully worked a grand swindling game, with Walker as the victim, was denied later in the day by Inspector McLaughlin at police headquarters and by Assistant Superintendent Bailey of the Pinkerton agency.

Walker is said to have been taken to a pretended pool room, where he and the two conspirators acting as his agents, bet and lost $110,000.

Walker is said then to have gone back to New Britain, but was again convinced by the conspirators that the loss was due to his own mistake in taking the name of the winning horses.

Walker is said to have consented to try it again and to have brought to New York a lot of the bank's securities and negotiated them for $240,000 cash.
He was allowed to win $20,000, according to the report, but on the next trial lost the entire amount, $260,000, including his winnings.

The swindlers then disappeared.

Much more is known about Walker's speculations that will be given out. They covered a period of about three months and were heavy.

Mrs. Lucy S. Reed Dead.

where she has since resided with her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Robinson. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robinson, and a son, George F. Reed of Barton. The funeral took place from the residence yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Smith's Specific Uric-O

For Rheumatism

Only

Internal Blood Treatment and Rheumatic Acid Dis-solvant.

All sufferers from Rheumatism will hail with delight the new discovery Uric-O. It is made from Nature's herbs and does not contain a single grain of mineral poison. Its action is to neutralize and drive from the system the Uric and Rheumatic acids that cause the trouble. It makes no difference where the pain is located, whether in the muscles, joints or kidneys, Uric-O will search it out and effectively top it.

Uric-O does not cure erythema which is the hair, it is designed to cure Rheumatism and rheumatic acid only. It does not contain a drop of alcohol or other stimulating poison and is not a cathartic.

The Red Cross Pharmacy is the home of Uric-O in Barre and you can purchase it of them for the cost of $1.00 a bottle or if you want to test it first, write to the makers, the Smith Drug Co., Hyacinthe, N. Y., and they will send you a sample by return mail.

COAT WITH A HISTORY.

Collector Darling Has Garment Rescued
From the Arctic Regions.

Burlington, Feb. 19.—One of the oldest days last week Collector of Customs Darling was in Swanton on his semi-annual tour of inspection of frontier ports, having driven from Albany. The cold had no terrors for him, however, so he wore a buffalo coat, a particularly fine one that had seen service in the Arctic region with Lieut. Greely in 1851.
The noted explorer left the coat at one of his abandoned posts in the "farthest north" and 10 years later Lieut. Peary in his search for the North pole, ran across the garment brought it back and presented it to Mr. Darling.

As assistant secretary of the navy, Mr. Darling had much to do with the outfitting of Lieut. Peary for one of his Arctic expeditions and as a token of appreciation of the aid and encouragement extended, the lieutenant presented this coat, valuable for its association and remarkable history.

Hunting for Trouble.

"I've lived in California 20 years and am still hunting for trouble in the way of burns, sores, wounds, boils, cuts, sprains or a case of piles that Bucklen's writes Charles Walters of Allegheny, Pennsylvania. No one hunting, Mr. Walters, it cures every case. Guaranteed at

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research.
Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowing of cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newcomb's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Over fifty families in Springfield declare themselves. It is said that fully eighty new houses are planned for the coming spring and summer. Last year houses were built on nearly every street in the village.

The two oldest citizens in Charlotte are Matthew St. Peter, who will be 90 years old February 25, and Marcus B.
Reynolds, who will be 90 in March.
Next to them in years is Peter Stacey, of East Springfield, who is in his 80th year.

Two little sons of Peter Phillips, who died in Peacham early in the winter, were brought to the town recently by parties believed to be from the county farm in New Hampshire and left in William Morse's dooryard on the supposition that he was the car-eaker of the poor. Mrs. Abby Hunt is caring for the little fellows until it can be decided where they belong.

RECENT DEATHS.

Miss Mary E. Jones Died in St. Louis
Aged 71 Years

News has been received in Charlotte of the death in St. Louis, Mo., Friday of Mary E. Jones, a prominent mail lady well known throughout that section. The remains will be brought to Charlotte for interment some time this week. Complete arrangements have not been made. Born in the town about 71 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jones, Miss Jones spent the larger part of her life in this town.
She was a member of the Methodist Church society which was active in Charlotte some years ago and she made a host of friends in all walks of life.
Since last fall she had been visiting her niece, Mrs. Ramsey, in St. Louis. Miss Jones is survived by a brother, who is a physician in Cincinnati, O., and two sisters, Mrs. Carpenter of Addison and Mrs. Grant H. Burrows of Burlington.

Mrs. Phoebe Chadwick of Enosburg

Falls died Saturday afternoon in her 89th year. Since the death of her husband, Weston Chadwick, she has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Mercy Towle, who survives her. Mrs. Chadwick received severe injuries from a fall a few years ago since which time she had been confined to her room and much of the time to her bed. The funeral was held this afternoon at one o'clock, the Rev. F. E. White officiating. The burial was in the cemetery near B. C.
Gallup's.
